

PEKANA[®]

Taking health a step further.

Nature in top form

As a manufacturer of natural remedies, we transform fresh medicinal plants into high-quality medicinal products using a traditional, advanced method.

Our complex remedies from plant extracts support the body in its all-natural healing.

Good solutions for you

We believe that every medicine cabinet should offer an alternative from nature in certified quality.

We bring the active ingredients from fresh plants into a form that you can dose safely and precisely. Doctors, therapists and patients share this opinion.
